

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

Legislative Bills and Reports

OF

Legislative Action

We are prepared to furnish the earliest obtainable information respecting legislation in all the Legislatures and in Congress, including copies of bills to be sent on the day of their introduction, and reports by mail or wire of every step in their progress until they become laws, or until finally defeated

Copies of Bills and Amendments

(Typewritten, mimeographed) immediately after introduction, 25c per folio of 100 words for one copy, and 5c per folio for each additional copy, the minimum charge to be 50c.

Reports of Action Taken on Bills

(including committee reports, hearings, changes in position on calendar, passage on first, second and third readings, final passage by either House and signature or veto by the Executive), 50c per report, and telegraph charges in addition if sent by wire.

Special Reports on the Present Status of Pending Legislation

On any subject in all or any of the states or in Congress, including copies of all bills pending, their history, and present position. A special charge will be made depending on the extent and expense of the work involved, estimates of which will be furnished promptly.

Special Reports of Laws Enacted in the Legislative Sessions of 1912

We are prepared to furnish estimates promptly of the cost of accurate and complete information on any subject, including official copies if desired.

LAW REPORTING COMPANY

115 Broadway, New York